POLICY & RESOURCES COMMITTEE

DOUBLE TAXATION ARRANGEMENT WITH BAHRAIN

The States are asked to decide:-

Whether, after consideration of the Policy Letter entitled “Double Taxation Arrangement with Bahrain”, dated 3 December 2024, they are of the opinion:-

1. To declare that:
 - (a) the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, signed by Guernsey and Bahrain, and dated 29 September 2024, has been made with the government of another territory with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to income tax and any tax of a similar character imposed by the laws of that territory;
 - (b) it is expedient that the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, should have effect, with the consequence that that Agreement shall have effect in relation to income tax in accordance with section 172(1) of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975, as amended (“the Income Tax Law”), notwithstanding anything contained in the Income Tax Law, or any other enactment; and
 - (c) the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, should be specified by Ordinance of the States as an approved international agreement for the purposes of section 75C of the Income Tax Law.

DOUBLE TAXATION ARRANGEMENT WITH BAHRAIN

The Presiding Officer
States of Guernsey
Royal Court House
St Peter Port

3 December, 2024

Dear Sir

1. Executive Summary

- 1.1. Guernsey and Bahrain have signed the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance” (“the Agreement”), dated 29 September 2024.

The principal purpose of a DTA is for two governments to agree procedures for the prevention of double taxation and tax avoidance and evasion, with respect to their domestic taxes.

- 1.2 In recent years, the Organisation for Economic Development & Co-operation (“OECD”) has been developing and implementing the Base Erosion & Profit Shifting (“BEPS”) initiative, one of the outcomes of which was the introduction of new, internationally agreed, minimum tax standards, aimed at combatting tax avoidance.

The Guernsey - Bahrain Agreement is the first double taxation agreement between the two jurisdictions and has been drafted to incorporate provisions which ensure that the agreement meets these BEPS minimum standards.

The purpose of this policy letter is to seek States approval, in accordance with section 172(1) of the Income Tax (Guernsey) Law, 1975, as amended (“the Income Tax Law”), for the provisions of the Agreement to be given domestic effect, and to specify the Agreement by Ordinance of the States as an approved international agreement for the purposes of section 75C of the Income Tax Law, which will permit the use of the powers in Part VIA of the Income Tax Law as to the exchanging of documents and information between the States and the other signatory party.

2. Background

2.1. Section 172(1) of the Income Tax Law provides:

“If the States by Resolution declare that arrangements specified in the Resolution have been made with the government of any other territory with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to income tax and any tax of a similar character imposed by the laws of that territory, and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect, the arrangements shall have effect in relation to income tax notwithstanding anything in any enactment.”

Section 172 (1A) further provides that:

“For the avoidance of doubt, arrangements made with the government of another territory and specified in a Resolution under this section may, without limitation, and provided that the main purpose or one of the main purposes of the arrangements is that they are made with a view to affording relief from double taxation, make provision in respect of the following matters -

- (a) the apportionment of taxing rights,
- (b) variations in the rates of tax, and methods of computing a person's liability to tax, in relation to particular sources of income,
- (c) the exemption from tax of particular sources of income,
- (d) other methods of affording relief from double taxation, in addition to those provided for by section 173 (tax credits), and
- (e) consequential, incidental, supplementary and transitional matters.”

Section 172(1) of the Income Tax Law would therefore be the appropriate mechanism for the Arrangement.

2.2. In recent years, in response to a request from the G20, the OECD has been working on the Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (“BEPS”) initiative. BEPS is based on the premise that, in an increasingly interconnected world, national tax laws, many of which have their origins over 100 years ago, have not always kept pace with global corporations, fluid movement of capital, and, most recently, the rise of the digital economy, leaving gaps and mismatches that can be exploited, in some cases to generate double non-taxation, which can undermine the fairness and integrity of tax systems.

- 2.3. Part of the BEPS outcomes was the introduction and implementation of new internationally accepted tax minimum standards, to which Guernsey, along with the other Crown Dependencies, committed.
- 2.4. The Agreement with Bahrain has been negotiated to ensure that it incorporates provisions which meet BEPS minimum standards.
- 2.5. In DTA negotiations, Guernsey broadly follows the OECD's Model Tax Convention on Income and on Capital (one of two of the most commonly used templates for DTAs - the other being the United Nations Model Double Taxation Convention Between Developed and Developing Countries).
- 2.6. The main aim of the OECD Model is to provide a means of settling, on a uniform basis, the most common problems that arise in the field of international juridical double taxation. The Council of the OECD recommends OECD Member Countries, when concluding or revising bilateral conventions, to conform to the Model (as interpreted by the comprehensive commentaries attached to the Model).
- 2.7. The Agreement with Bahrain is also broadly based on the OECD Model. A copy is attached as Appendix 1.
- 2.8. The Agreement specifically provides for the following outcomes, in the case of some of the most common situations where income crosses borders:
 - (a) When a company resident in a party pays dividends to a resident of the other party, the dividends are taxable only in that other party.
 - (b) When a resident of a party pays income from debt-claims (which would include interest) to a resident of the other party, the income is taxable only in that other party.
 - (c) Royalties arising in a party, which are paid to a resident of the other party, are taxable only in that other party.
 - (d) Pensions arising in a party and paid to a resident of the other party may be taxed in the first-mentioned party.
- 2.9. In addition to the requirements of Section 172(1) of the Income Tax Law, it is proposed that the Agreement be specified by Ordinance of the States as an approved international agreement for the purposes of section 75C of the Income Tax Law, which will permit the use of the powers in Part VIA of the Income Tax Law as to the exchanging of documents and information between the States and the other signatory party.

3. Recommendations

3.1. The Policy & Resources Committee is pleased to recommend that the States should declare that:-

- (a) the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, signed by Guernsey, has been made with the government of another territory with a view to affording relief from double taxation in relation to income tax and any tax of a similar character imposed by the laws of that territory;
- (b) it is expedient that the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, should have effect, with the consequence that that Agreement shall have effect in relation to income tax in accordance with section 172(1) of the Income Tax Law, notwithstanding anything contained in the Income Tax Law, or any other enactment; and
- (c) the “Agreement Between the States of Guernsey and the Government of the Kingdom of Bahrain for the Elimination of Double Taxation with Respect to Taxes on Income and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance”, should be specified by Ordinance of the States as an approved international agreement for the purposes of section 75C of the Income Tax Law.

4. Compliance with Rule 4

ARTICLE 5

PERMANENT ESTABLISHMENT

2. The term “permanent establishment” includes especially:
 - a) a place of management;
 - b) a branch;

 - d) a factory;
 - e) a workshop;
 - f) a mine, an oil or gas well, a quarry or any other place of extraction of or exploration for natural resources;

3. A building site or construction or installation project constitutes a permanent establishment only if it lasts more than six months.
4. Notwithstanding the provisions of this Article, an enterprise shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in a Party and to carry on business through that permanent establishment if in that Party it carries on:
 - a) any activity which is directly connected with the exploration for or production of crude oil or other natural hydrocarbons from the ground in that Party for its own account, or refining crude oil owned by it or by others, wheresoever produced, in its facilities in that Party; or
 - b) any sales of crude oil or other natural hydrocarbons produced from the ground in that Party, or of finished or semi-finished products manufactured in that Party from crude oil or other natural hydrocarbons; or
 - c) any activity that results in amounts of income receivable by reason of an interest in crude oil or other natural hydrocarbons produced from the ground in that Party or the proceeds thereof.
5. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, the term “permanent establishment” shall be deemed not to include:

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2, where a person — other than an agent of an independent status to whom paragraph 7 applies — is acting on behalf of an enterprise and has, and habitually exercises, in a Party an authority to conclude contracts in the name of the enterprise, that enterprise shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in that Party in respect of any activities which that person undertakes for the enterprise, unless the activities of such person are limited to those mentioned in paragraph 5 which, if exercised through a fixed place of business, would not make this fixed place of business a permanent establishment under the provisions of that paragraph.
 7. An enterprise shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in a Party merely because it carries on business in that Party through a broker, general commission agent or any other agent of an independent status, provided that such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.
 8. The fact that a company which is a resident of a Party controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other Party, or which carries on business in that other Party (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

ARTICLE 6

INCOME FROM IMMOVABLE PROPERTY

1. Income derived by a resident of a Party from immovable property (including income from agriculture or forestry) situated in the other Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. The term “immovable property” shall have the meaning which it has under the law of the Party in which the property in question is situated. The term shall in any case include property accessory to immovable property, livestock and equipment used in agriculture and forestry, rights to which the provisions of general law respecting landed property apply, usufruct of

3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall apply to income derived from the direct use, letting, or use in any other form of immovable property.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 3 shall also apply to the income from immovable property of an enterprise.

ARTICLE 7

BUSINESS PROFITS

1. The profits of an enterprise of a Party shall be taxable only in that Party unless the enterprise carries on business in the other Party through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, the profits that are attributable to the permanent establishment in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 may be taxed in that other Party.
2. For the purposes of this Article, the profits that are attributable in each Party to the permanent establishment referred to in paragraph 1 are the profits it might be expected to make, in particular in its dealings with other parts of the enterprise, if it were a separate and independent enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions, taking into account the functions performed, assets used and risks assumed by the enterprise through the permanent establishment and through the other parts of the enterprise.
3. Where, in accordance with paragraph 2, a Party adjusts the profits that are attributable to a permanent establishment of an enterprise of one of the Parties and taxes accordingly profits of the enterprise that have been charged to tax in the other Party, the other Party shall, to the extent necessary to eliminate double taxation on these profits, make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of tax charged on those profits. In determining such adjustment, the competent authorities of the Parties shall if necessary consult each other.
4. Where profits include items of income which are dealt with separately in other Articles of the Agreement, then the provisions of those Articles shall not be affected by the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 8

SHIPPING AND AIR TRANSPORT

1. Profits of an enterprise of a Party from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic shall be taxable only in that Party.
2. For the purposes of this Article, profits derived from the operation in international traffic of ships and aircraft include profits:
 - a) derived from the rental of ships and aircraft if such ships or aircraft are operated in international traffic; and

- b) derived from the use, maintenance or rental of containers (including trailers and related equipment for the transport of containers) used for the transport of goods and merchandise, where such rental profits or profits from such use, maintenance or rental, as the case may be, are incidental to the profits described in paragraph 1.

- 3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall also apply to profits from the participation in a pool, a joint business or an international operating agency.

ARTICLE 9

ASSOCIATED ENTERPRISES

- 1. Where:

- a) an enterprise of a Party participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other Party; or
- b) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of a Party and an enterprise of the other Party, and in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would, but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises, but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

- 2. Where a Party includes in the profits of an enterprise of that Party — and taxes accordingly — profits on which an enterprise of the other Party has been charged to tax in that other Party and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first-mentioned Party if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other Party shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those profits. In determining such adjustment, due regard shall be had to the other provisions of this Agreement and the competent authorities of the Parties shall if necessary consult each other.

ARTICLE 10

DIVIDENDS

- 1. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of a Party to a resident of the other Party shall be taxable only in that other Party.
- 2. Paragraph 1 shall not affect the taxation of the company in respect of the profits out of which the dividends are paid.
- 3. The term “dividends” as used in this Article means income from shares, or other rights, not being debt-claims, participating in profits, as well as income from other corporate rights which is subjected to the same taxation treatment as income from shares by the laws of the Party of which the company making the distribution is a resident.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a resident of a Party, carries on business in the other Party of which the company paying the dividends is a resident, through a permanent establishment situated therein, and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
5. Where a company which is a resident of a Party derives profits or income from the other Party, that other Party may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company, except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other Party or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment situated in that other Party, nor subject the company's undistributed profits to a tax on the company's undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of profits or income arising in such other Party.

ARTICLE 11

INCOME FROM DEBT-CLAIMS

1. Income from debt-claims arising in a Party and paid to a resident of the other Party shall be taxable only in that other Party.
2. The terms "income from debt-claims" and "income" as used in this Article means income from debt-claims of every kind, whether or not secured by mortgage and whether or not carrying a right to participate in the debtor's profits, and in particular, income from government securities and income from bonds or debentures, including premiums and prizes attaching to such securities, bonds or debentures. The terms also include income from arrangements such as Islamic financial instruments where the substance of the underlying contract can be assimilated to a loan. The terms shall not include penalty charges for late payment or any income treated as a dividend under the provisions of paragraph (3) of Article 10 of this Agreement.
3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the income, being a resident of a Party, carries on business in the other Party in which the income arises, through a permanent establishment situated therein, and the debt-claim in respect of which the income is paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
4. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the income, having regard to the debt-claim for which it is paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.
5. Income from a debt-claim shall be deemed to arise in a Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the income, whether he is a resident of a Party or not, has in a Party a permanent establishment in connection with which the indebtedness on which the income is paid was incurred, and such income is borne by such permanent establishment, then such income shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated.

ARTICLE 12

ROYALTIES

1. Royalties arising in a Party and paid to a resident of the other Party shall be taxed only in that other Party.
2. 3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the royalties, being a resident of a Party, carries on business in the other Party in which the royalties arise, through a permanent establishment situated therein, and the right or property in respect of which the royalties are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
4. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties, having regard to the use, right or information for which they are paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.
5. Royalties shall be deemed to arise in a Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the royalties, whether he is a resident of a Party or not, has in a Party a permanent establishment in connection with which the liabilities to pay the royalties was incurred, and such royalties are borne by such permanent establishment, then such royalties shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated.

In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.

ELIMINATION OF DOUBLE TAXATION

1. In the case of Bahrain, double taxation shall be avoided as follows:

Where a resident of Bahrain derives income which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, may be taxed in Guernsey, Bahrain shall allow as a deduction from the tax on the income of that resident, an amount equal to the income tax paid in Guernsey. ARTICLE 22

NON-DISCRIMINATION

1. Nationals of a Party shall not be subjected in the other Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which nationals of that other Party in the same circumstances, in particular with respect to residence, are or may be subjected. This provision shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1, also apply to persons who are not residents of one or both of the Parties.
2. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Party has in the other Party shall not be less favourably levied in that other Party than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other Party carrying on the same activities. This provision shall not be construed as obliging a Party to grant to residents of the other Party any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes on account of civil status or family responsibilities which it grants to its own residents.
3. Except where the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 9, paragraph 4 of Article 11, or paragraph 4 of Article 12, apply, income from debt-claims, royalties and other disbursements paid by an enterprise of a Party to a resident of the other Party shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable profits of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been paid to a resident of the first-mentioned Party.
4. Enterprises of a Party, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Party, shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of the first-mentioned Party are or may be subjected.
5. The provisions of this Article shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 2, apply to taxes of every kind and description.

ARTICLE 23

MUTUAL AGREEMENT PROCEDURE

1. Where a person considers that the actions of one or both of the Parties result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the domestic law of those Parties, present his case to the competent authority of either Party. The case must be presented within three years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.
2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Party, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Agreement. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the domestic law of the Parties.
3. The competent authorities of the Parties shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in the Agreement.

4. The competent authorities of the Parties may communicate with each other directly, including through a joint commission consisting of themselves or their representatives, for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.
5. Where,
 - a) under paragraph 1, a person has presented a case to the competent authority of a Party on the basis that the actions of one or both of the Parties have resulted for that person in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, and
 - b) the competent authorities are unable to reach an agreement to resolve that case pursuant to paragraph 2 within two years from the presentation of the case to the competent authority of the other Party, any unresolved issues arising from the case shall be submitted to arbitration if the person so requests. These unresolved issues shall not, however, be submitted to arbitration, if a decision on these issues has already been rendered by a court or administrative tribunal of either Party. The arbitration process shall terminate if, at any time after a request for arbitration has been made and before the arbitration panel has delivered its decision to the competent authorities of the Parties, a decision concerning the issue is rendered by a court or administrative tribunal of one of the Parties. Unless a person directly affected by the case does not accept the mutual agreement that implements the arbitration decision, that decision shall be binding on both Parties and shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the domestic laws of these Parties. The competent authorities of the Parties shall by mutual agreement settle the mode of application of this paragraph.

EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION

1. The competent authorities of the Parties shall exchange such information as is foreseeably relevant for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or to the administration or enforcement of the domestic laws concerning taxes of every kind and description imposed on behalf of the Parties insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Agreement. The exchange of information is not restricted by Articles 1 and 2.
2. Any information received under paragraph 1 by a Party shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic laws of that Party and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, the determination of appeals in relation to the taxes referred to in paragraph 1, or the oversight of the above. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions.
3. In no case shall the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 be construed so as to impose on a Party the obligation:
 - a) to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Party;

- b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Party;
 - c) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process, or information, the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).
4. If information is requested by a Party in accordance with this Article, the other Party shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though that other Party may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations of paragraph 3 but in no case shall such limitations be construed to permit a Party to decline to supply information solely because it has no domestic interest in such information.
5. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 3 be construed to permit a Party to decline to supply information solely because the information is held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or because it relates to ownership interests in a person.

ARTICLE 25

MEMBERS OF DIPLOMATIC MISSIONS AND CONSULAR POSTS

Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of diplomatic missions or consular posts under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements.

ARTICLE 26

ENTITLEMENT TO BENEFITS

1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Agreement, a benefit under this Agreement shall not be granted in respect of an item of income if it is reasonable to conclude, having regard to all relevant facts and circumstances, that obtaining that benefit was one of the principal purposes of any arrangement or transaction that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit, unless it is established that granting that benefit in these circumstances would be in accordance with the object and purpose of the relevant provisions of this Agreement.
2. Where a benefit under this Agreement is denied to a person under paragraph 1, the competent authority of the Party that would otherwise have granted this benefit shall nevertheless treat that person as being entitled to this benefit, or to different benefits with respect to a specific item of income, if such competent authority, upon request from that person and after consideration of the relevant facts and circumstances, determines that such benefits would have been granted to that person, or to another person, in the absence of the transaction or arrangement referred to in paragraph 1. The competent authority of the Party to which the request has been made will consult with the competent authority of the other Party before rejecting a request made under this paragraph by a resident of that other Party.
