6. QUESTIONS

From: Deputy St Pier

To: President, Committee for Home Affairs

- 1 In a decision dated 22nd April, following a request to release information relating to legal costs incurred in a case, the Freedom of Information Panel, said:
- "In addition to the general public interest in transparency and accountability, the Panel consider that the prudent use of public funds, particularly where the amounts involved may be significant engages the overriding of the exemption."
- "The appeal is therefore upheld. The Panel's finding is that the information requested, namely the Legal Costs, should be released."
- In light of this decision:

- a) By whomever paid, what were the legal costs incurred with THB Solicitors in this case?
 - b) By whomever paid, what were the legal costs incurred with Ferbrache & Farrell in this case?

From: Deputy St Pier To: President, States' Trading Supervisory Board

- 1 Having regard to the need for taxpayer funding to recapitalise Aurigny following accumulated losses, it is a matter of public interest to know the risk of further costs and losses arising from the current disruption to the Aurigny schedules.
- Approximately what additional costs have been or are being incurred (for example, daily, weekly, monthly) as a result of the disruption, delays and cancellations experienced by Aurigny since the beginning of the year?

From: Deputy Gollop To: President, States' Trading Supervisory Board

- 1 I am sure we all appreciate the need to deliver the energy transition and implement the island's Electricity Strategy and therefore the need for road closures. But does the STSB consider the closure of Doyle Road from 15th May to 30th October acceptable for the leisure, educational and commercial community, and will further long closures occur elsewhere?
- 2 Will the STSB encourage Guernsey Electricity to accelerate the essential works in Doyle Road by perhaps utilizing different working patterns to support the community connectivity and minimize potential business losses?

From: Deputy Gabriel To: President, Policy & Resources Committee

- 1 "Through the Committee's responses last week to Rule 14 questions, it has become clear that neither the Committee (or its predecessor) were advised for 3.5 months (between November and 13th February) as they should have been, by a "limited number of senior officers" of key information in the management of Phase 2 of the 'Our Hospital Modernisation Programme, of particular political significance in view of the Government Work Plan debate in January.
- "In light of this, does the Committee take the view that the comment previously made by the Head of the Public Service that the conduct of a number of officers associated with the OHM programme fell significantly short of required standards, applies equally to the "limited number of senior officers" who advise the Policy and Resources Committee?"
