- 1 Dairy farmers on this island require on island services of a professional vet. The farmers have no-one to turn to in an emergency and they are being forced to put down valuable dairy cows when they are suffering and there is no diagnosis or professional assistance.

From the perspective of the Committee for the Environment & Infrastructure the main driving force behind updating the animal welfare legislation was to align with welfare standards in the UK and other trading partners in the post Brexit context. We are in fact contravening all forms of ethical behaviour and letting down one of the main agricultural industries on the island by not providing a professional vet to service the island's dairy animals.

With animal welfare standards in the process of being revised what is being done by the Committee for Environment & Infrastructure for dairy farmers caught in an impossible ongoing veterinary service vacuum?

---

2	We cannot expect the dairy industry and the world-renowned Guernsey breed to survive without an agricultural officer and a professional dedicated vet to service the dairy agricultural community. When is the Committee for Environment &amp; Infrastructure going to fill this vacancy and stop being negligent to the farming community.

From:	Deputy Queripel	To:	Deputy Brouard

1	I'm sure the Committee for Health & Social Care ("HSC") are doing their utmost to try and fill the vacancies that currently exist in our Health Service, so in relation to that, can the President please tell me how many vacancies there are in the service and also what measures are the HSC Committee pursuing in an attempt to fill those vacancies?

2	As we know, in an attempt to ease the pressure on the service, they often need to employ agency staff, so can the President please tell me how many agency staff are currently working in our Health Service, and can he also tell me what criteria HSC employ to ensure Agency staff have the necessary qualifications that are needed for the roles available within the service?

3	I very much appreciate we need agency staff working within our Health Service so in relation to that, can the President please tell me what measures HSC have in place to monitor the performance of agency staff whilst they are working in our Health Service?
---	--

4	We often talk about 'growing our own', so can the President tell me how many trainees there are currently undertaking training within our health service, and will they be obliged to work in the service when their training is complete and they have attained their qualifications?
---	--

5	Can the President please tell me how much money would be saved per annum, if the roles that are currently undertaken by agency staff were undertaken by suitably qualified Guernsey residents?
---	--

---

---

From:	Deputy Queripel	To:	Deputy Prow
--------------	-----------------	------------	-------------

---

1	Can the President please tell me if his Committee has ever considered pursuing the idea of UK National Lottery tickets being sold here in the Bailiwick?
