6. QUESTIONS

From: Deputy De Lisle

To: President, Committee for Home Affairs

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | There has been a large influx of foreign nationals with their families into the island in the last year. What changes have been made to local population management | and immigration laws to allow for this influx of foreign nationals and their dependants?
|---|---|

From: Deputy Gollop To: President, Committee for Environment & Infrastructure

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 | Will a procurement contract with local motor industry providers for the periodic vehicle testing requirements of our membership of the Vienna Convention (misleadingly perhaps called by some people, annual inspections or a Guernsey MoT) be finalised by the end of this political assembly term in June 2025 or indeed by the end of this year? |
| 2 | Will final implementation of the relevant periodic vehicle testing requirements coincide with the proposed 31 st March 2028 States of Jersey implementation deadline? |
| 3 | Will further work and useful negotiation attempt to minimize cost and inconvenience to Guernsey car owners especially those on comparatively limited means, which might involve adapting the French Controle Technique Inspection test regime? |
