- President, Education, Sport & Culture Committee
General Update Statement

6. QUESTIONS

From: Deputy Rylatt

To: President, Committee for Home Affairs

- 1 As outlined in the 2024 Bailiwick Law Enforcement annual report, the volume of sexual offences reported last year were up 46% from 2023 levels. While recognising that boys and men are also the victims of sexual crime, women and girls are generally impacted at a higher rate, and so will the committee prioritise establishing a Violence Against Women and Girls taskforce – similar to the model successfully implemented to Jersey?

From: Deputy Gollop

To: President, Committee for Health & Social Care

- 1 Will the new HSC Committee consider as a priority the redevelopment and repurposing of the Burnt Lane St Martins Raymond Falla House as an appropriate setting as a children's service family service and social care hub fit for purpose as soon as possible to bring into use by 2028?
